

Press Release

Tech Europe is delighted to announce the appointment of Martin Blakey as Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Europe. This appointment has been made to ensure that customers receive the highest level of service during a period of sustained growth for the Tech and Pang brands of tyre repair products in the European markets. Martin brings with him a depth of experience gained from over 25 years working globally with automotive aftermarket distributors and original equipment manufacturers. Recognising the need to exceed the service demands of distributors in a highly competitive environment, Tech Europe has also expanded its sales, marketing and customer services team at the head office in Lisburn Northern Ireland.
